BIOGRAPHY

Alan J. Dixon is a senior partner in the corporate and business department with the St. Louis based law firm, Bryan Cave. Bryan Cave also has offices in Washington, D.C., Los Angeles, New York, Phoenix, Kansas City, Johnson County, Orange County and Santa Monica; as well as offices overseas in London, Riyadh and Frankfurt.

Before joining Bryan Cave, Senator Dixon was a leader in the United States Senate for 12 years without ever losing sight of the goal that took him there -- taking care of the people of Illinois.

He retired from the U.S. Senate in 1993 due to a primary election defeat. Prior to that, however, Senator Dixon enjoyed an unbroken string of 29 election victories. In 1988, and again in 1990, his Senate party colleagues elected him unanimously to serve as the chief deputy whip, their number three leadership post.

During his Senate career, Alan J. Dixon held important committee positions on the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs; Small Business; and the Armed Services Committees.

As a senior member of the Senate Banking Committee, Dixon was among the first to introduce legislation to bring to justice those guilty of savings and loan fraud.

A farsighted legislator, he looked into the commercial banking industry and saw some of the troubling signs that led to the thrift crisis. He was the first senator of the 102nd Congress to introduce legislation to help keep the banking industry vibrant and healthy, and to head off the burden of another multi-billion dollar taxpayer bailout.

Dixon won a major victory for Illinois with a 65-33 Senate vote to prevent the New York dominated Securities and Exchange Commission from seizing control of Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) regulated products. The CFTC accounts for 100,000 Illinois jobs, and deposits $4 billion each night in Illinois banks.

Dixon's efforts to assure affordable housing bore fruit when, after months of hearings, the new head of the Federal National Mortgage Association informed Senator Dixon he was announcing steps to make its home mortgage policies and procedures more amenable for working families in low- and moderate-income communities, and particularly, minority neighborhoods.

On the Senate Armed Services Committee, Alan J. Dixon chaired the subcommittee on readiness, which oversees 38 percent of the United States defense budget. Dixon's subcommittee was one of those responsible for making sure U.S. manpower and weapons systems employed in the Persian Gulf were adequate to the task.

Dixon's 43 year public career began when he was in law school, where he was elected Belleville Police Magistrate. Since then, he has served as Illinois Secretary of State, an office he won by a margin of 1.3 million votes. His 1.5 million re-election majority marked the first time a candidate of either political party ever carried all 102 Illinois Counties in an election, including all 30 townships in suburban Cook County and all 50 wards in the City of Chicago.

Dixon also served as State Treasurer, where his policies earned more than $525 million for Illinois taxpayers, and he established investment incentives for Illinois banks that encouraged them to invest in their own communities.

In his state legislative career, which included the Illinois House and Senate, Dixon wrote or co-sponsored legislation that produced or nurtured the state's modern criminal code, the modern judicial article to the Illinois constitution, its community college system and its open meeting law.

He was the first Democratic statewide candidate to disclose the sources and amounts of all campaign contributions, and since 1970, his personal financial assets and liabilities were a matter of public record.

He is a graduate of the University of Illinois and holds a law degree from Washington University in St. Louis. He and [] have three children and seven grandchildren.

Special Agent [redacted] conducted the following investigation on Wednesday, October 5, 1994.

b6
b7C

[redacted] (Social Security Account Number: [redacted]
[redacted] Date of Birth: [redacted] Residence: [redacted]
[redacted] Business Address: MC
DONNELL DOUGLAS CORPORATION (MDC), Mailcode 1001460, Post Office
Box 516, St. Louis, Missouri 63166-0516; Business telephone: [314] 232-9829), was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and that he was being contacted in connection with the background investigation of ALAN JOHN DIXON. [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] first verified that he was currently [redacted]
[redacted] of MDC STRATEGIC BUSINESS AND INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT. In that capacity, [redacted] explained, he has daily contact with government officials relative to MDC's development in the aerospace industry. It was through his employment with MDC that [redacted] met and developed both a professional and social relationship with DIXON. That relationship has extended for approximately twelve years; however, the interviewee knew of the appointee longer in hearing his father and relatives speak of the Belleville native. The most recent contact between [redacted] and DIXON occurred approximately three weeks prior to the instant investigation, when [redacted] DIXON and their spouses went to dinner.
According to [redacted] he and DIXON made a point of avoiding business or career related discussions during such gatherings. [redacted] stated that he learned of DIXON's possible appointment to oversee military base closures in reading the local newspapers.

b6
b7C

The first meeting between [redacted] and DIXON occurred when DIXON headed the United States Senate Armed Services Committee.
[redacted] was tasked with providing DIXON an overview of MDC's military programs. [redacted] interjected that he considered himself a good judge of character. Having met, in his professional maneuvers, a wide variety of political and corporate personalities including JOHN and JACKIE KENNEDY, [redacted] J.
EDGAR HOOVER, etcetera, [redacted] prided himself on making accurate

b6
b7C

assessments of peoples' characters. Given that, [] believed DIXON to be, upon first impression, cordial, friendly, but business minded.

b6

In their first and subsequent meetings, [] never found DIXON to be associated with, influenced by, or suggestive of any type of impropriety. [] went on to state that he found the appointee to be completely trustworthy. "ALAN was a stickler for making sure there were no improprieties." [] then offered one of what he said were numerous examples of DIXON's honesty and integrity. Following DIXON's failure to be re-elected in 1993, the appointee went to work for MDC's outside counsel BRYAN CAVE. Given his background and Capital Hill associations, DIXON was consulted and his advice sought on military industrial matters as impacted by congressional action. On one occasion, [] asked DIXON if he would contact another senator or representative, [] claimed he could not recall the name of the individual.), for information which would have affected MDC business (also not recollected). According to [] the appointee, in no uncertain terms, advised him that he was not permitted to make such a contact for a certain period after leaving his Senate position. In this and other matters, DIXON was "respectable and fastidious" in his professional conduct.

In discussing DIXON's employment with BRYAN CAVE and counsel for MDC, [] explained that their use of DIXON was as more a consultant and advisor. The interviewee knew of no instances in which DIXON was called to represent the corporation in a civil or criminal adversarial situation. It was reiterated how the appointee's demeanor was completely professional. DIXON paid particular attention to his appearance. In addition to being impeccably dressed, the appointee was physically fit. "ALAN has perfect fitness. He works out. He's full of energy."

b7C

The appointee's reliability, in [] opinion, was demonstrated by his keeping of appointments. DIXON was also open with [] "He would tell us up front if he could not support us in an issue." For [] DIXON maintained one of the highest value systems of anyone he ever met. The appointee's temperament was characterized as gracious and never argumentative. "ALAN is in total control," said [] On that topic, there were no situations recollected by the interviewee in which DIXON appeared stressed or temperamental. Of all those professional attributes maintained by the appointee, [] believed his fairness best suited him for whatever Presidential appointment he might receive, and especially if it involved the base closures. In being fair, DIXON always heard out arguments both for or against a particular issue. His decisions were then decisive. The appointee's loyalty to the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, and MDC were interpreted as unquestioned. The interviewee knew of no suspicious or questionable associates of DIXON's on either a personal or professional level. DIXON's work practices and ethics were considered "meticulous." He provided very sound legal advice while at BRYAN CAVE. DIXON also assured that the advice was accurate and involved the proper authority or approval.

b6

Socially, [] and DIXON enjoyed dinners and casual meetings. The appointee was observed to be very attached to his family. [] noticed that DIXON and his wife enjoyed activities together. DIXON seemed very proud of his children and grandchildren. Much of the time spent in their social contacts involved "swapping stories about the kids." The interviewee recalled in his last meeting with DIXON how the appointee cut the evening short because he realized he had to attend his grandson's baseball game. [] was not a drinker and therefore noticed such habits among individuals he met. In DIXON's case, the appointee was observed having one or two drinks during a typical gathering. The interviewee never observed any activities which might suggest the appointee abused alcohol. Similarly, [] saw no indication that the appointee abused or used prescription medications or illegal drugs. DIXON was not believed to be prejudiced or biased toward individuals or groups on the bases of ethnicity, religious background, age, gender, social status, or physical handicap. [] considered the opposite to be true. DIXON was "color blind" and his staff seemed well balanced. Also, DIXON was very concerned about individuals who had physical disabilities. As examples, [] mentioned a handicapped individual who was a mutual friend of the interviewee and appointee and of whom DIXON often asked.

Among his peers, the appointee was observed to be very popular while he was in the Senate. That reputation apparently continued after leaving Congress. The interviewee was most familiar with the appointee on a professional level, and was not familiar with private or social organizations and clubs to which DIXON belonged. [] knew DIXON to be an avid golfer but, again, did not know what clubs at which he was a member. DIXON appeared, to the interviewee, to be financially secure. When asked if DIXON was in any way associated with MDC's board of directors, [] said he was not. In summarizing the appointee's suitability for a Presidential appointment, [] could think of no conduct or associations in DIXON's background which might be used in any way to embarrass, influence, pressure, coerce, compromise, or in any way negatively impact upon the appointee's character, reputation, judgement or discretion. At the conclusion of the interview, [] offered his, "highest recommendation" for whatever position the appointee might be appointed.

[] advised she could not really form an opinion of the appointee's legal ability as she has never associated with him in that respect. She stated that the appointee does not do any legal work for TWA. It is the appointee's job to act as a manager and try to find the correct legal talent within his firm to handle the appropriate legal problem.

b7C

[] advised she has met several of the appointee's business associates and they all seem to be respectable individuals. b6
b7c

[] stated she has only known the appointee for a very short period of time and probably many other people know him much better. Nevertheless, she has never heard of any past or current behavior by the appointee that if known by others would reflect negatively on his character or might make him susceptible to undue influence or pressure.

[] said she would absolutely recommend the appointee as a person who could be appointed to a high government position of trust and confidence.

Lessen is currently a bankruptcy judge in the Central District of Illinois.

One month after it was filed in the District of Columbia, Judge Gesell ordered the case transferred to the Central District of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1404(a) for the convenience of parties and witnesses. Judge Gesell noted that the events underlying the complaint took place in the Central District of Illinois and most of the Defendants reside in this district.

Through a clerical error the case was transferred to the Northern District of Illinois and came before Judge Zagel. While the file sat in the Northern District, an order of default was routinely entered on August 18, 1989. When this error was discovered, Judge Zagel vacated the order of default and transferred the case to this Court on September 21, 1989. Judge Zagel apparently chose the Springfield Division because this is the only court not named as a Defendant by Yocum.

To say that the complaint is not a model of the clear, unambiguous notice pleading required by federal courts is an understatement. Despite our efforts to decipher what Yocum alleges, all we can tell from his complaint is that he was convicted of some crime by Judge Mihm, is presently incarcerated in the Federal Correctional Center in Springfield, Missouri, is unhappy with his present situation, and wishes to be released from prison.

To provide an example of the flavor of Yocum's complaint, we quote a portion of it:

In or about May of 1973, Champaign County Court charged Mr. Yocum in Case No. 73X750.

In June of 1973, Judge Robert James Steigmann called a meeting for Mr. Yocum, wife, and attorney Bert Reeves to be in the Jury Room in the Court House. Steigmann had two Law Students with him as witnesses. All (6) persons were close to the end of the table where each would be able to hear what Steigmann had to say. Steigmann stated to Mr. Yocum: Just lisson [sic], and I will talk of what is to take place, "IF YOU DON'T DROP YOUR JURY TRIAL DEMANDS, I WILL SEE THAT YOU DIE IN PRISON."

* * *

Mr. Yocum was forced into court without any Due Process, or defense of any type. He was given 2 to 6 years for a CRIME THAT NEVER TOOK PLACE, AND WOULD NEVER BEEN BEEN PROVED IN COURT BY VALID EVIDENCE, AND THAT WAS THE REASON STEIGMANN WANTED TO CONVICT AS MANY AS POSSIBLE, AS HE WAS UP TO BE JUDGE IN A FEW WEEKS. The Court Records are EVIDENCE THAT THE THREAT WAS MADE OM [sic] YOCUM, AND STEIGMANN DID ADMIT HE MADE THE THREAT, AND THE WITNESSES DID LIE IN AN AFFIDAVIT, AND UNDER OATH BEFORE JUDGE, ROGER LITTLE. The EVIDENCE is Clear that Alan J. Dixon was the RINGLEADER OF ORGANIZED CRIME IN ILLINOIS, In 1979 ALAN J. DIXON made an affidavit to the Springfield, MO USDC court to TRY AND HAVE YOCUM MURDERED BY DRUGS IN THE USEMC PRISON.

* * *

Alan J. Dixon has used the Courts of Illinois, City Police, his Illinois State Police and lawyers to do his dirty tricks, as if he had the BOOK of DIRTY TRICKS BY THE CIA & FBI, to use. Every time Yocum tried to CLEAR UP THE GOVERNMENT FRAUD AGAINST HIM, The law officials would kidnapp [sic] him and pick new charges to attempt to put him away, so they would not be investigated for such felony acts the Records show them guilty of.

* * *

The arrest, in fact, was KIDNAPPING. IT WAS TERRORISM FROM 1982 in Nov. until March 1989.

Standing alone, this portion of the complaint (which is the majority) amply illustrates the enormous problems created for this Court by individuals such as Yocum. However, this is only the beginning of the story. Yocum has continued to file numerous motions and petitions with this Court which we will turn to in due course. But before addressing these other submissions, we will deal with the complaint filed in this cause.

We have thoroughly examined the record and read the submissions filed by Yocum giving him the full benefit of the doubt as is proper with a pro se litigant. See Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 5, 9-10 (1980); Abdul-Wadwood v. Duckworth, 860 F.2d 280, 287 (7th Cir. 1988). Despite our efforts to decipher what Yocum alleges, there appear to be several insurmountable barriers in his path to recovery.

I

The first barrier that Yocum is unable to overcome is that he is attempting to bring a section 1983 action against federal officials. Section 1983 clearly provides that "every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any state or territory or the District of Columbia ..." deprives an individual of his federal constitutional or statutory rights shall be liable in an action at law. 42 U.S.C. §1983 (emphasis added). Federal officials, who are not acting in concert with state agents, are not considered to be state actors for the purpose of section 1983 and thus are not acting under color of state law. See Stonecipher v. Bray, 653 F.2d 398 (9th Cir. 1981), cert. denied, 454 U.S. 1145 (1982)."

The second insurmountable barrier in Yocum's path is the doctrine of judicial immunity which has been recognized for over 100 years. Bradley v. Fisher, 13 Wall. 335 (1872). "Few doctrines were more solubly established at common law than the immunity of judges from liability for damages for acts committed within their judicial jurisdiction" Pierson v. Ray, 386 U.S. 547, 553-554 (1967). Judicial immunity "applies even when the judge is accused of acting maliciously and corruptly, and it 'is not for the protection or benefit of a malicious or corrupt judge, but for the benefit of the public, whose interest it is that the judges should be at liberty to exercise their functions with independence and without fear of consequences.'" Id. at 544 (quoting Scott v. Stansfield, L.R.3 Ex. 220, 223 (1868)). Judges Baker, Mihm, Ackerman, and Lessen are therefore clearly immune from liability under section 1983 for any action within the sphere of their offices.

The third reason Yocum's complaint must be dismissed is that the judges named as Defendants in the caption of the complaint are not even named in the body of the complaint. After thoroughly examining the complaint, the only comprehensible assertion against any of the named Defendants is an allegation that Senator Dixon was the "ringleader of all organized crime in the State of Illinois." A naked allegation such as this falls far short of even the liberal notice pleading accepted by the federal courts. Therefore, on this Court's own motion we will dismiss Yocum's complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) for failure to state a cause of action.

II

The next document filed by Yocum is a motion for an injunction or a restraining order which was filed on July 28, 1989, with the Northern District of Illinois. Specifically, Yocum asks that we "order the U.S. Western District to file an affidavit as to jurisdiction." Yocum further "claims that the Illinois court, and the Missouri court absconded his rights for justice, for lack of authority and without criminal evidence." Yocum also alleges that "no probable cause existed for his conviction and that the arrest warrant was barred by the United States Constitution and hearsay rules of evidence." Several of these grounds are patently meritless and the remaining grounds are properly addressed to the sentencing judge in a petition for habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2255 (Yocum has filed several of these petitions as well). Therefore, Yocum's motion for an injunction or restraining order will be denied.

III

Yocum has also filed two motions entitled "motion for hearing on Eldon Lowell Yocum's claim of federal agents misconduct and for appointment of Gerard Lynch, professor (criminal law at Columbia University's Law School who is regarded as a RICO expert, for plaintiff's claim.)" These motions reflect that they were filed by counsel Thomas H. Koonen, P.O.A. on behalf of Yocum. However, Koonen did not sign either of these motions. We suspect that Koonen is not actually an attorney at law but most likely is another resident of the mental health unit at Springfield, Missouri. In support of these motions, Yocum once again alleges that federal officials engaged in misconduct such as making false statements, conspiracy, felony perjury, and mob action to convict him in prior criminal cases. Once again, these motions fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and will be denied.

IV

On September 7, 1989, Yocum filed yet another motion. This time, the motion was captioned "Motion to compel Greylord to investigate all defendants herein named or with abettors." This motion is apparently brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1361 which empowers district courts to grant writs of mandamus. Apparently, Yocum wants this Court to grant mandamus and order the investigators involved in the "Operation Greylord" investigation in Chicago to investigate Senator Dixon and the federal judges named as Defendants in Yocum's section 1983 complaint. This motion reads, in its entirety, "Defendants must be investigated, as the check and Balance must document the RICO conduct, and Court of Appeals Judge Wm Bauer is the whip, and has a duty to also investigate Judge Michael M. Mihm, Alan J. Dixon with all other defendants guilty of terrorism violations." Once again, this appears to be little more than the disturbed ramblings of an individual who is badly in need of professional psychiatric help. This motion will also be denied.

Yocum has also filed two petitions for writs of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2254. A petition for a writ of habeas corpus under this section is intended to provide relief for a person who is in custody pursuant to the judgment of a state court when that judgment is in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States. In his first petition for a writ of habeas corpus under section 2254, Yocum attacks his January 1974 conviction by the Champaign County Circuit Court. Yocum states that the offense for which he was convicted was "incest with a 16 year old girl." Yocum further indicates that the length of his sentence was 2 to 6 years' imprisonment. In his second petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to section 2254, Yocum attacks his conviction by Judge Mihm in federal district court for the offense of collection of extensions of credit by extortionate means in violation of 18 U.S.C. §894. This conviction was entered on March 22, 1984, and Yocum was sentenced to a period of imprisonment of 9 years according to his petition.

We have thoroughly reviewed both of these petitions filed by Yocum and, pursuant to Rule 4 of the rules governing habeas corpus petitions filed under section 2254, have determined that from the face of the petitions it plainly appears that Petitioner is not entitled to relief in this Court. Therefore, we will dismiss these petitions without requiring the Government to answer.

This Court has recently been criticized by the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals for summarily dismissing frivolous petitions for writs of habeas corpus under section 2254. Russell v. Lane, No. 88-1598 (Nov. 29, 1989, 7th Cir.)(Posner, J.). In the Russell case, this Court summarily dismissed 4 out of 6 grounds raised by Russell in support of his petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to section 2254. Upon discovering that this Court had been a member of the Illinois Appellate Court panel which affirmed Russell's state court conviction, Russell's remaining two claims were transferred to Judge Mihm of the Peoria Division. Judge Mihm thereafter dismissed both of the remaining claims. Upon appeal, the Seventh Circuit remanded the case to Judge Mihm stating that this Court "spent so little time considering" the four claims it summarily dismissed that there would be little if any wasted effort by allowing Judge Mihm to revisit those four claims. While this Court certainly agrees that summary dismissal is only to be used when it is plain that the claims raised by the Petitioner are groundless, a district court should not be hesitant in dismissing frivolous claims. It serves no purpose whatever to require the Government to respond to claims and allegations upon which a petitioner has absolutely no hope of prevailing.

The petitions filed in the instant case provide an excellent example. In his first petition pursuant to section 2254, Yocum indicates that the date of his conviction was 1974 and that the maximum amount of time that he possibly could have served was six years. Furthermore, Yocum is presently incarcerated in the Federal Correctional Center in Springfield, Missouri. Therefore, he is clearly not "in custody" at the present time pursuant to a judgment of a state court and cannot bring a petition for a writ of habeas corpus under section 2254 for relief. See Escobedo v. Estelle, 655 F.2d 613 (5th Cir. 1981). Therefore, we are certain that Yocum could prove no set of facts under this petition which would entitle him to relief and will summarily dismiss it without requiring the Government to respond.

In his second petition for a writ of habeas corpus under section 2254, Yocum does not even attack a judgment of conviction by a state court. Rather, he is attacking his conviction in the federal district court presided over by Judge Mihm. While Yocum is currently "in custody" pursuant to this judgment, it is not a judgment by a state court and therefore Yocum cannot bring a petition for writ of habeas corpus under section 2254 for relief. Yocum's sole remedy to attack this conviction at this time is a petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. §2255 which is properly addressed to the sentencing judge. Yocum has filed several of these petitions and they will be transferred to the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois, Peoria Division, where Yocum was sentenced. Thus, we can also dismiss Yocum's second petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to section 2254.

VI

Yocum has also filed a motion to compel transfer pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1361, 1404(a). This motion was captioned with the United States Supreme Court and addressed to Justice Blackmun. In this motion, Yocum states that "plaintiff, being documented as 100% innocent, moves this court of jurisdiction to order the Vermilion County Circuit Court to transfer the case in 1959 to this court to set aside that case against James E. Burke and Eldon L. Yocum, as Thomas Melton Sandy made a plea of guilty of having committed all three crimes, and no other person did them." This motion was originally docketed by the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court and then transferred to the Clerk's Office for the Central District of Illinois. From the motion, we are unable to determine exactly what case in Vermilion County Circuit Court Yocum wishes transferred and are doubtful of our ability to order a case transferred from the state court to federal court. This motion will also be denied at this time.

VII

The last motion that we will address at this time is a motion by Yocum pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1361 for a writ of mandamus ordering the Clerk of Court to provide him with undisclosed evidence relating to his federal criminal case. In support of this motion, Yocum asserts that he contacted Attorney F. Lee Bailey who refused a $1 million fee to take his case but allegedly provided him with some advice as to how to proceed. Because Yocum has made no showing whatsoever that the Clerk of this Court has failed to comply with his duties in any manner, this motion will be denied.

VIII

Yocum has also filed four petitions for writs of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C §2255. Section 2255 provides a remedy whereby a person in custody under a sentence of a federal court may attack his conviction on the grounds that it is unconstitutional, was imposed by a court without jurisdiction to impose such a sentence, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law. Such a petition is properly addressed to the court which sentenced the Petitioner and thus these four petitions will be transferred to the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois, Peoria Division, where Petitioner was sentenced.

Orders

Yocum's litigious behavior is well known to this Court. On May 25, 1988, Judge Mihm entered an order directing Yocum to seek leave of Court prior to filing any further pleadings or motions. In view of Yocum's continuing abuse of the system, and the enormous amount of work created for the Court's staff and Clerk's office in having to deal with such ridiculous allegations, we also will enter such an order. See In re McDonald, 109 S. Ct. 993 (1989).

Ergo, for all of the foregoing reasons, it is hereby ORDERED that:

The complaint filed in this cause (d/e 3) is DISMISSED with prejudice.

The motions for a hearing on claims of federal agents misconduct (d/e 5, 8) are DENIED.

The motion for an injunction or a restraining order (d/e 7) is DENIED.

The motion to compel Greylord to investigate the Defendants named in the complaint (d/e 13) is DENIED.

The petitions for writs of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2254 (d/e 16, 24) are DISMISSED.

The motion for a writ of mandamus (d/e 25) is DENIED.

The petitions for writs of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2255 (d/e 20, 26, 28, 29) are TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois, Peoria Division, which is the court that sentenced Petitioner.

It is further ORDERED that Yocum obtain leave of Court prior to filing any further pleadings or motions. The Clerk is directed not to file any documents submitted by Yocum unless he has obtained leave of Court prior to submitting the document for filing.

Case CLOSED.

ENTER: 76 January, 1990.

ESELL, J. GAG

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Title 28, Section 1332 and §522 (a)(4)9B) (FRCP 8(a)(10), in that there is true diversity of citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000.00).

2. Plaintiff is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Missouri.

3. Defendant ALAN J. DIXON, is a citizen of the United States and is a resident of the district of Columbia.

4. On or about July 20, 1977, in the Central District of Illinois, at Danville, IL Mr. Yocum filed Civil Class Actions before Judge, Henry C. Wise as his Right pursuant to The First Amendment. First, in Vermilion County Court for Danville, IL, in 1958 Three charges were filed against three different persons. THOMAS MELTON SANDY, made a guilty plea, and admitted having committed all three crimes, and no other person or persons did those (3) CRIMES. Yocum and JAMES E. BURKE were each sentenced for the same crimes, of which Yocum and Burke did not have any part in the acts. Yocum won that Civil Action at the DEADLINE in Jan. 1978 by the WRITTEN LAWS, and US COURTS are PROHIBITED from RULING CONTRARY to the WRITTEN LAWS.

5. In or about May of 1973, Champaign County Court Charged Mr. Yocum in Case No. 73 X 750. In June of 1973, Judge, Robert James Steigmann called a meeting for Mr. Yocum, wife, and Attorney Burt Greaves to be in the Jury Room in the Court House. Steigmann had two Law Students with him as witnesses. All (6) persons were close to the end of the table where each would be able to hear what Steigmann had to say. Steigmann stated to Mr. Yocum: just listen, and I will talk of what is to take place, "IF YOU DON'T DROP YOUR JURY TRIAL DEMANDS, I WILL SEE THAT YOU DIE IN PRISON." Burt Greaves Said, just out side that room I have been an attorney for 41 years, and I have never heard any one talk like that before, you will have to fine an attorney for your defense. He kept the $1,000.00 fee, and Yocum paid Fright Doss $7,800. to hold a JURY TRIAL. After Doss was paid in cash, in full he takes to Steigmann, and refused to have a JURY TRIAL.

Mr. Yocum was forced into Court without any Due Process, or defense of any type. He was given 2 to 6 years for a CRIME THAT NEVER TOOK PLACE, AND WOULD NEVER BE PROVEN IN COURT BY VALID EVIDENCE, AND THAT WAS THE REASON STEIGMANN WANTED TO CONVICT AS MANY AS POSSIBLE, AS HE WAS UP TO BE JUDGE IN A FEW WEEKS. The Court Records are EVIDENCE THAT THE THREAT WAS MADE ON YOCUM, AND STEIGMANN DID ADMIT HE MADE THE THREAT, AND THE WITNESSES DID LIE IN AN AFFIDAVIT, AND UNDER OATH BEFORE JUDGE, ROGER LITTLE. The EVIDENCE is Clear, that Alan J. Dixon was the RING LEADER OF ORGANIZED CRIME IN ILLINOIS, and The Atty. Gen. Office (WM J. SCOTT) and Champaign County States Attorney filed BRIEFS that had over NINETY (90) lies in each of them. The Springfield, IL Appellate and Supreme Courts Ruled in FAVOR OF THE LIES, AND DENIED THE TRUTH BY YOCUM. THE VIOLATIONS are Cited in Title 18 U.S.C. as mail fraud, extortion, false statements, armed robbery, kidnapping, terrorism, and RICO CONDUCT IN GENERAL. In 1979 ALAN J. DIXON made an affidavit to the Springfield, MO USDC Court to TRY AND HAVE YOCUM MURDERED BY DRUGS IN THE USFMC PRISON. The Court and BOP Records prove three doctors who did not test YOCUM after he invoked the Fifth Amendment, but they went to Court about the next day after Yocum filed a Civil Action, and they each, KNOWINGLY LIED, stating that each found Yocum to be INCOMPETENT, AND MOVED THE COURT TO DISMISS ALL ACTIONS AGAINST MR. YOCUM, WHY? Because Senator, Kennedy told WARDEN RALSTON TO ARRANGE TO GET YOCUM OUT OF THAT PRISON. Alan J. Dixon has used the Courts of Illinois, City Police, his Illinois State Police and Lawyers to do his dirty tricks, as if he had the BOOK of DIRTY TRICKS BY THE CIA & FBI, to use. Every time Yocum tried to CLEAR UP THE GOVERNMENT FRAUD AGAINST HIM, The law officials would kidnapp him and pick new charges to attempt to put him away, so they would not be investigated for such felony acts the Records show them guilty of. I feel sure the US ATTY. GEN. and OTHERS refuse to investigate them, is that Yocum is HONEST WITH HIS COMPLAINTS. NOTE: Before Judge, Mihm, the Carol Clinic doctor, his reports have helped the Courts win, about 60% of the times, they use him. His reports are made to the form necessary, for the Courts needs, to put an innocent party away. I feel I am to have one million from each of these four doctors who lie under oath, for the Court's needs. Plus, the reports to be destroyed.

6. The Court file under Judge Mihm, is proof that the Court was without jurisdiction - authority, and FAILED TO PROVE INMAN MADE A DOWN PAYMENT TO YOCUM, THUS, MEANING THERE WAS NEVER "PROBABLE CAUSE". The arrest, in fact, was KIDNAPPING. IT WAS TERRORISM FROM 1982 in Nov. until March 1989.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1361, Mihm be Ordered to set aside the conviction Order, and Order Yocum's civil action entered that Judge, Waldo Ackerman sent Mihm to take Care of in case No. 85-3036-CV, and for this Court, Order the Parole Officer (JANE THOMASON) to release Yocum INSTANTLY. If this Court wishes to Grant Yocum a Demanded Trial by Jury, he would ask the Jury to Rule on Case Law in his favor.

COMPLAINT

(For Declaratory Judgement & Injunctive Relief)

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Title 28, Sec. 1332; § 522 (a) (4) (B) in D.C., in that there is true diversity of citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars, ($10,000.00).

2. Plaintiff is really Mr. Yocum, a citizen of the U.S. and a resident of the State of Missouri. (Waynesville, Mo.)

3. The defendants in this case and 1979-80, are citizens of the United States and a resident of the District of Missouri, and the District of Columbia.

4. On January 13, 1989 at the home of Eldon Yocum near Waynesville, Mo. some armed men in numbers of twelve (12) or more, raided the home by criminal trespass, and terrorism from a parole officer who attempted to have Mr. Yocum murdered from her larger number of known lies given (Complaint No 6, has 36 lies alone) then with intent to poison there EVER minds, so they would shoot Yocum dead. The criminal procedure (18 U.S.C.A.) Rules tells that a Crime has to have been committed for a Probable Cause, Warrant to be signed BEFORE an arrest, is made by law. The Parole Officer had not personal knowledge, that the Peoria, Ill. judge used the Process and legal evidence to convict Mr. Yocum. She had no personal knowledge, of who owned the house that Yocum Construction Co. has owned from 1965 to 1989. She has violated many rights, in 63 A Am. Jur. 2d Prohibition, § 23. "Generally..... possessing incidentally judicial powers, and known as quasi-judicial tribunals, and also in extreme cases to purely ministerial bodies when they usurp and attempt to exercise judicial functions. In other words, it is not requisite to the granting of the writ the tribunal whose action is to be arrested thereby shall actually, in name and in law, be endowed with definite judicial powers and functions, but only that it is attempting to exercise such power or function in a particular case without lawful authority." Had Yocum had a legal defense attorney, he would have proved himself not guilty in the Courts after 1925. His witness had personal knowledge that the Ill. (P.S.I.) report was Government Fraud from a long list of false statements (18 U.S.C. § 1001, § 1621, and Perjury.

Wherefore, the premises considered, Mr. Yocum demands judgement against the Parole Officer, et al, in the amount shown in his Civil Action against the trial court in Peoria, Ill. from case law used from Dr. John Wild in Minn. in 1972, plus Terrorism Acts of Kidnapping and held illegally in a Seg. room per day, and $1,000.00 per day for slave labor in Constitutional violations, or Defendant demands Trial by Jury, without written instructions to the Jury.

Case Law, and Exhibits pursuant to Civil Rule 10 (c) added for Courts answer to Show Cause in 1979-80 actions by this Court to affirm by _____ as follows:

1. Alan J. Dixon made an affidavit to this Court for an arrest warrant on the statements by his staff, that Mr. Yocum had a high powered, bolt action, rifle, with a scope. Also stated; Yocum may try to kill Mondale in Illinois.

2. The officers with the warrant knew the affidavit and statements to be perjury at the Yocum home, as he has never had a gun like that in the house, ever. Also, he was dressed in Old work clothes, and unable to drive or fly to Springfield, Ill. to look for W.C. Mondale. The Marshall's and Court were of Federal Rules of evidence at Rule 602, 606 and 607, that is a Bar to a witness liar.

If Raymond Conroy, defense attorney, had been competent in his duty, he would of moved the Court to have dismissed the case for lack of jurisdiction, perjury, criminal trespass and armed robbery by the U.S. Marshalls, as Darlene Yocum was called to come pick-up the guns that had been stolen by the U.S. Marshalls, before she had a day off to drive to Springfield, where the stolen guns were held illegally by the Marshalls, she had a call that the Marshalls had refused to return them. I think they are in contempt of court and theft.

Yocum had evidence that the (3) U.S. Medical Center doctors did lie to this Court under oath, as Yocum has never been incompetent after 1925. Edward M. Kennedy believed Yocum to be both Competent, and innocent, and he directed Warden Halston to arrange to get Yocum out of that Federal Prison. Richard Count sign the order at once, and had attorney Comstock be his defense attorney. Fourteen days later, Fulton State Hospital doctor ruled Yocum as being Competent, after being subjected to eight months of Government Fraud by R.I.C.C. and Terrorism, after the armed robbery and theft of the costly guns, from the home of Berlene Yocum. I request, in the interest of justice, this Court impeach the Parole Officer Complaints by known lies, and murder attempt, and order Yocum released instanten... from this Seg. Ward.

Sincerely,

Re: First, Criminal case files, Second, Civil Cases won by the Written Laws.

Dear Sirs:

I am in need of Court papers from the Court here, Pleas, Illinois, Danville, Ill, and State Court in Urbana, Ill.

In the City here, I need the Court Records from Nov. 1979 to July 1980 (79-2079) I think the case number is. Also Greene County Probate Court in June 1980, and the Case No. of my Civil Action.

Most important, is the Affidavit signed by Alan J. Dixon, and each Federal Agent who (so called) arrested or kidnapped me.

In U.S.D.C. Pleas, Ill., Case No. 82-20054, I want the evidence used before both, Grand-Trial Jury and the written instructions to the Trial Jury. The transcript will prove the Govt. & Court failed to go forward with evidence to prove Mr. Yocum guilty of "my Wrong Doing". Brief by Atty. Bruce Bornstein shall affirm this, also. Judge Michael M. Mihm took my Liles Agreement from me in Court, so I was unable to prove Thuman had a Claim, only until the downpayment was demanded, at that point Thuman defaulted his contract.

The Court had to prove Daniel R. Ingram did make a downpayment, and he DID NOT do so after 1966 when he moved in to the Yocum property. Next, is the F.S.I. report that came from the Danville, Ill. Division Court house. My wife is an eye witness, with personal knowledge that I had no Due Process, Defense, and no evidence was ever shown for Probable Cause or a conviction on March 22, '84. The F.S.I. was not given to Mr. Yocum to read, and his wife read about 5 minutes, to learn it contained many false statements.

In Springfield, Illinois I need all Records from the Sec. of State Office made between Alan J. Dixon against Mr. Yocum from 1977 to Dec. 1979, as he sent his Affidavit here in this Court in Nov. 1979. He used lies, and revoked my Commercial Driving Right at the time, I had a safety Driving Record for over 36 years, plus 38 states I drove in for Ryder.

Urbana, Ill, Sixth Judicial Circuit Court, files from Jan. 1972 until March 1989. In Case No. 73X750 Judge, Robert James Steigmann, made a Death Threat on the life of Mr. Yocum to attempt to stop his Jury trial demands! He also, made an Affidavit, stated he "Did not" make the threat," and one of his witnesses agreed on. In 1975 Mr. Yocum had Post Conviction hearing. He proved the threat and lies on there, plus many others made lies in the Appeals to the Appellate & Supreme Courts. Champaign County State's Atty.

I want to pay for this much, and later have you do more.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at Jefferson City, Missouri:

MISSOURI BAR ASSOCIATION

On October 5, 1994, [REDACTED] Missouri Bar Association, Disciplinary Office, 3355 American Boulevard, Jefferson City, Mo., made available for review their file for ALAN JOHN DIXON.

b6
b7C

A review of DIXON's file, which did not reflect his date of birth, but listed his social security number as 361-18-3388, revealed he was admitted to the Missouri Bar on December 10, 1949, and also admitted to practice law before the Missouri Supreme Court on that date. The file did not reflect his employer at the time of his application. The file also did not reflect the law school from which DIXON received his law degree.

DIXON's file reflects he is currently a member in good standing with the Missouri Bar Association. However, DIXON allowed his Missouri Bar Association membership to lapse for the period 1980 to 1993. DIXON was re-admitted on March 23, 1993. He listed the reason he allowed his membership to lapse was because he was not practicing law in the state of Missouri during the period 1980 - 1993.

No derogatory information was located in the files of the Missouri Bar Association concerning DIXON, and no complaints or grievances were located. The file reflected a current address for DIXON as being 7535 Claymont, Belleville, Illinois. The file did not reflect DIXON's current employer.
